

CHRISTIAN LIFE RESOURCES: A Ministry Needed Even More Today than Yesterday

Chances are good you have seen it already – certainly in the news and on social media, quite possibly in your own congregation. Whether it's the Dobbs decision alone or just the current cultural and political ferment, people are talking, worrying, wondering, and getting upset about all sorts of issues that at least some in our society had thought were settled and beyond discussion – let alone being changed.

So now you as a pastor or staff minister, or teacher or leader, are dealing with questions about abortion, sexuality, gender identity, medical ethics, civic responsibility, and much more – not just what's right or wrong, but “What should we do?” “Is what they're telling me true?” “How can we make a difference?” and even “How should we vote?”

On top of that, there are the things you see in the world around us that are different from what they were a short time ago. Pro-life pregnancy centers are targeted and vandalized (yes, this has happened to one of our CLR centers), yet at the same time more pregnant women and more families are coming to centers like ours for help. There is even some evidence that more babies will be placed for adoption as abortion's legality and availability diminish in many areas. New developments and policies in healthcare and medicine, fields already turned upside down by the COVID-19 pandemic, raise all sorts of ethical issues for Christians and their consciences. You want to not just have answers for those under your spiritual care, but even more to have answers grounded in Scripture and informed by the facts that communicate God's love and grace even as they express his will and judgments.

You are not alone in all this! We're here to help. Christian Life Resources' mission is to use life and family issues as bridges to convey the love of God and to share the message of salvation through Christ. CLR is compelled by God's Word to “speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves” – not only striving to find ways to share the Gospel with others in the world, but also providing materials to help Christians and churches witness to the saving truths of Jesus Christ.

So Christian Life Resources offers:

- Thoughtful answers to difficult questions on life and family matters
- Fresh, expert research on the latest life issues
- Counsel for clergy, teachers, doctors, lawyers, mothers, fathers, and more on these issues – personalized, comprehensive, and confidential
- Educational resources and opportunities that answer, “What would God have me to do?” based on the direction found in his Word. These include:
 - Our Clearly Caring magazine, email updates and bulletins, extensive website resources, and various printed materials
 - Expert presentations, guest preachers, Bible classes, annual national convention, and weekly Life Challenges podcast urge you to contact us at any time and see the next page for resources you can use right now.

- Free downloadable educational materials on topics as varied as: birth control, baptism, miscarriage, post-abortion recovery, life after death, cohabitation, and marriage
- Life Celebration Sunday sermon and worship resources and related materials
- Free, downloadable group Bible studies on a variety of life issues
- Informed, legal, and Christ-centered direction for one's medical care – CLR's Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care – Christian Version document is available for all 50 states and some Canadian provinces and can be downloaded at no cost from the CLR website.

CLR is also “on the front lines,” offering timely spiritual and practical help to people in need, as well as the opportunity for believers and churches to partner with us

- Our network of affiliated pregnancy care centers helps mothers address unexpected pregnancies and navigate difficult situations; these centers also offer support to mothers, children, and families with material resources and things like parenting classes
- We serve single mothers (as well as their young children) who are seeking spiritual, academic, and vocational assistance in the residential setting of New Beginnings – A Home for Mothers, the CLR daughter ministry

So please, let Christian Life Resources help you help your people in these challenging days. We encourage you to contact us at any time and use the QR codes for resources you can use right now.
